The cabinet meeting was attended by all the members except the attorney-general, who is out of the city. The question of a consolidation of the revenue districts was not considered.

The President had another consultation with Secretary Folger, to-day, upon the subject of the proposed consolidation of the internal revenue districts. It is understood for all the states except Indiana, and New Jersey, plans of reorganizations have been already agreed upon.

The Republicans.
New York, 19.—The republican central committee, this evening, adopted a plan for organization prepared by a committee of eighteen. The only changes made in it by the executive committee are that the proposed enrollment be made in November, instead of September, and that all who call themselves republicans, whether they belong to district organizations or not, may be enrolled.

The James Trial.

Kansas City, 19.—Journal's Gallatin, Mo.—The cases against Frank James for murder in connection with the Gallatin bank robbery fourteen years ago, and the Winsted train robbery in 1881, were called to-day and upon application of the defense, were continued until August 20th. The defense asked the continuance on the ground that their witnesses might not be able to arrive for several days on account of the delay in travel by freights. The State's counsel was present with Mrs. Sarah Hite and three other witnesses from Tennessee, whose presence was evidently a surprise to the defense. Mrs. Hite was prepared to testify to conversations among the James boys and others at her house, implicating them. Dick Liddle is also here for the prosecution. The plea of the defense in the continuance is generally regarded simply as an excuse. The prisoner seems in ordinary health and the usual large crowd is present eager for a near view of him.

Damage from Floods.

Kansas City, 19.—The river at 11 p.m., was twenty-three feet by the bridge gauge, the one heretofore used in these dispatches, and twenty-two feet eight inches by signal service measurement, and is now standing still. The damage by the storm on Saturday night and Sunday, seems to have been chiefly in southeastern Nebraska, where the loss to crops and bridges is said to be very great. Some parts of northeastern Kansas and northwestern Missouri have suffered, but less seriously in this vicinity. The fruit crop was somewhat injured, but little serious damage to cereals has been reported. In the vicinity of Liberty, Missouri, a large area of bottom lands are overflowed, and a number of farms are under water. Fifteen hundred acres of corn land are inundated in St. Charles County, Kansas.

Art Protection.

Rome, 19.—In the Chamber of Deputies to-day, several members expressed a regret that the United States government have unduly taxed objects of art imported into the United States, and they demanded reprisals. Magliani, minister of finance, and Baccaro, minister of public instruction, while they blamed the United States Congress for imposing a tax on imported objects of art, yet hoped that diplomatic negotiations would procure better terms. They agreed that reprisals would be useless, especially because the impossibility of fixing the real value of objects of art.
